Re: Plaintiff's Request for Voluntary Dismissal without Prejudice
Roe v. New York State Board of Law Examiners, 1:22-cv-10298 (JPC)

Dear Judge Cronan:

As the plaintiff in the above-entitled action, I'm writing today to respectfully request that the Court dismiss this action without prejudice. The undersigned acknowledges that he recently expressed his intent to proceed with this action, see ECF Dkt. No. 19, and if anything, his views and position remain entirely unchanged.<sup>1</sup>

With 47 days until the bar, however, I'd like to shift my remaining time and energy to exam preparation and success. In all events, I've appreciated the Court's consideration, along with court personnel who have been incredibly helpful and accommodating.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

/s/
Richard Roe
Plaintiff

cc: Elizabeth Figueira, Esq. (by ECF and email)

In light of Defendant's consent, see Dkt. 24, this case is dismissed without prejudice. The Clerk of Court is respectfully directed to close this case.

<sup>1</sup> Nothing contained in this letter should be construed as type of waiver, admission, or modification of Plaintiff's rights and so on.

SO ORDERED
Date: January 11, 2023
New York, New York

JOHN P. CRONAN
United States District Judge
